Subject: Sustainable Convergence, Conflict Prevention, and My Candidacy for the Position of United Nations Secretary-General

Your Excellency,

1. For nearly thirty years, I have been working on complex issues that the United Nations and the international community are called upon to address. This work has led me to develop a set of proposals that I consider essential to strengthening the Organization and better supporting its Member States.

2. My strategic vision (Att. 1, EN Att. 1.2) is structured around two major priorities: reducing the digital divide and reinforcing conflict prevention. It is grounded in the creation of new sources of financing—approximately 30 billion dollars per year, without soliciting Member States—in order to deploy global AI and Internet systems serving justice and social sectors.

3. With a background in systems engineering and 28 years of experience in litigation before French and American courts (Att. 3, EN Att. 3.2), as well as nearly as many years advocating for the creation of a new United Nations agency dedicated to Internet governance and global digital systems, I am confident in my ability to implement this vision—one that differs in several essential respects from those of the six candidates already in the race (Att. 4, EN Att. 4.2).

4. Cross-analyses of my strategic vision, the six proposals of my platform (Att. 2, EN Att. 2.2), and the Doha Programme of Action for Least Developed Countries (Att. 5, EN Att. 5.2), the Awaza Programme of Action for Landlocked Developing Countries (Att. 6, EN Att. 6.2), the Antigua et Barbuda Agenda for Small Island Developing States (Att. 7, EN Att. 7.2), the Global Resources Outlook 2024 (Att. 8, EN Att. 8.2), and the Pact for the Future (Att. 9, EN Att. 9.2) demonstrates that my proposals would bring concrete benefits not only to LDCs, LLDCs, and SIDS, but to all States, including the most advanced countries such as France.

5. In view of the upcoming cycles of informal dialogues planned for the consideration of additional candidacies, France may wish for my proposals to be presented publicly and duly taken into account in the selection process. Should this be the case, a nomination on your part would be necessary for me to present them before the General Assembly. I naturally remain at your full disposal for any further information.

6. Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Pierre Genevier
